

SOCIETY

LILIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

A FRIEND IN NEED.

"A friend in need, my neighbor said, when you will open the summer with Miss Herde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steep, of Meriden, Conn., who are summering there."

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. McVay have returned from their wedding trip and are with Mrs. McVay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tarr, on South Broadway until their home in Boulder and Estes Park is completed.

I thought a bit, and took him by the hand, and said I, "you do not understand."

The inner meaning of that simple phrase.

A friend is what the heart needs all the time.

Henry van Dyke.

For Visitors.

Mrs. Marjorie Welsh will entertain at luncheon next Saturday in the Tea Cup Inn and with a dance that night at the Wilson Inn in Maple Ridge, to introduce her great Miss Louise Blaier of Dallas. Miss Frances Treadaway of Hominy, who will visit the Woods, and Miss May Morrissey of Kansas City, who will visit Mrs. Pa. Wade. On Wednesday these visitors will be guests of honor at a party to be given at Sand Springs. Another event in their honor will be the dancing party on Thursday evening when Miss Lucy May Morrissey will be host. Other affairs are being planned for them.

Informal Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett entertained with an informal dinner on Saturday, honoring their wedding anniversary and complimenting Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Matson of Milwaukee, who are visiting in the Bennett home, 1224 South Cheyenne avenue.

Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. A. J. Hull was hostess on Saturday entertaining informally in honor of Mrs. William Bretherage of Dallas, who with her daughter, Miss Grace Bretherage, left yesterday for her home after a 10 days' stay in the C. C. and J. B. Cole homes.

For Mrs. Beissau.

Mrs. W. H. Poole of 915 North Denver will entertain informally in her home next Saturday afternoon for her house guest, Mrs. Charles Paul Beissau of Chaffee, Mo.

For Mrs. Compton.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will entertain informally at bridges on Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. E. Compton of Palm Beach, Fla., who is visiting Mrs. Charles L. Yancey.

Informal Card Party.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will be an honored guest today at a card party given by Mrs. G. W. Warnecke, 608 East Buena Vista.

Tuesday's Events.

Mrs. W. G. Warnecke will entertain at cards on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. W. E. Compton.

Mr. H. F. Abby and young son H. F. Jr. will leave this week for Mill Lake, Mich., where the latter will attend Camp Kee-Mi-Rah-Bee, a summer camp for boys. This is composed of 15 boys and runs from July 1 to Aug. 10. It is owned by a Mr. Yeager of Chicago and proves each year a wonderful summer outlet for young America, so it is said. Mrs. Abby expects to leave July 10 for the Michigan lakes and will be joined on the 20th by Mr. Abby.

Lieutenant C. Robertson, who was overseas with the 16th Division and returned with the casualty company, landing at Charleston, S. C., arrived Sunday and he and Mrs. Robertson will spend their time until they go to housekeeping with Lieutenant Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robertson, 1130 North Cheyenne, and Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bates, in Irving place.

Mrs. Hallie Golay, secretary of the home service section, had Mrs. L. McMinn, secretary of the local Red Cross, have returned from Dallas, where they attended a meeting of the southwestern division of the Red Cross. While away Mrs. McMinn visited her husband in San Antonio and while there had the pleasure of welcoming home a brother, who has just returned from overseas with the 29th division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walter and little daughter, Mary Frances, and Mrs. Walter's mother, Mrs. B. M. McFarlin, will leave Sunday for points in Colorado for the summer. Their friends will be glad to know that Mary Frances is much improved, having been seriously ill.

Mrs. Frank H. Reed, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Margaret Reed and Mr. Edward Reed, left Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif., where they will spend the summer with Miss Herde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steep, of Meriden, Conn., who are summering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. McVay have returned from their wedding trip and are with Mrs. McVay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tarr, on South Broadway until their home in Boulder and Estes Park is completed.

I thought a bit, and took him by the hand, and said I, "you do not understand."

The inner meaning of that simple phrase.

A friend is what the heart needs all the time.

Henry van Dyke.

For Visitors.

Mrs. Marjorie Welsh will entertain at luncheon next Saturday in the Tea Cup Inn and with a dance that night at the Wilson Inn in Maple Ridge, to introduce her great Miss Louise Blaier of Dallas. Miss Frances Treadaway of Hominy, who will visit the Woods, and Miss May Morrissey of Kansas City, who will visit Mrs. Pa. Wade. On Wednesday these visitors will be guests of honor at a party to be given at Sand Springs. Another event in their honor will be the dancing party on Thursday evening when Miss Lucy May Morrissey will be host. Other affairs are being planned for them.

Informal Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett entertained with an informal dinner on Saturday, honoring their wedding anniversary and complimenting Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Matson of Milwaukee, who are visiting in the Bennett home, 1224 South Cheyenne avenue.

Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. A. J. Hull was hostess on Saturday entertaining informally in honor of Mrs. William Bretherage of Dallas, who with her daughter, Miss Grace Bretherage, left yesterday for her home after a 10 days' stay in the C. C. and J. B. Cole homes.

For Mrs. Beissau.

Mrs. W. H. Poole of 915 North Denver will entertain informally in her home next Saturday afternoon for her house guest, Mrs. Charles Paul Beissau of Chaffee, Mo.

For Mrs. Compton.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will be an honored guest today at a card party given by Mrs. G. W. Warnecke, 608 East Buena Vista.

Informal Card Party.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will entertain informally at bridges on Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. E. Compton of Palm Beach, Fla., who is visiting Mrs. Charles L. Yancey.

Tuesday's Events.

Mrs. W. G. Warnecke will entertain at cards on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. W. E. Compton.

Mr. H. F. Abby and young son H. F. Jr. will leave this week for Mill Lake, Mich., where the latter will attend Camp Kee-Mi-Rah-Bee, a summer camp for boys. This is composed of 15 boys and runs from July 1 to Aug. 10. It is owned by a Mr. Yeager of Chicago and proves each year a wonderful summer outlet for young America, so it is said. Mrs. Abby expects to leave July 10 for the Michigan lakes and will be joined on the 20th by Mr. Abby.

Lieutenant C. Robertson, who was overseas with the 16th Division and returned with the casualty company, landing at Charleston, S. C., arrived Sunday and he and Mrs. Robertson will spend their time until they go to housekeeping with Lieutenant Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robertson, 1130 North Cheyenne, and Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bates, in Irving place.

Mrs. Hallie Golay, secretary of the home service section, had Mrs. L. McMinn, secretary of the local Red Cross, have returned from Dallas, where they attended a meeting of the southwestern division of the Red Cross. While away Mrs. McMinn visited her husband in San Antonio and while there had the pleasure of welcoming home a brother, who has just returned from overseas with the 29th division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walter and little daughter, Mary Frances, and Mrs. Walter's mother, Mrs. B. M. McFarlin, will leave Sunday for points in Colorado for the summer. Their friends will be glad to know that Mary Frances is much improved, having been seriously ill.

Mrs. Frank H. Reed, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Margaret Reed and Mr. Edward Reed, left Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif., where they will spend the summer with Miss Herde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steep, of Meriden, Conn., who are summering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. McVay have returned from their wedding trip and are with Mrs. McVay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tarr, on South Broadway until their home in Boulder and Estes Park is completed.

I thought a bit, and took him by the hand, and said I, "you do not understand."

The inner meaning of that simple phrase.

A friend is what the heart needs all the time.

Henry van Dyke.

For Visitors.

Mrs. Marjorie Welsh will entertain at luncheon next Saturday in the Tea Cup Inn and with a dance that night at the Wilson Inn in Maple Ridge, to introduce her great Miss Louise Blaier of Dallas. Miss Frances Treadaway of Hominy, who will visit the Woods, and Miss May Morrissey of Kansas City, who will visit Mrs. Pa. Wade. On Wednesday these visitors will be guests of honor at a party to be given at Sand Springs. Another event in their honor will be the dancing party on Thursday evening when Miss Lucy May Morrissey will be host. Other affairs are being planned for them.

Informal Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett entertained with an informal dinner on Saturday, honoring their wedding anniversary and complimenting Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Matson of Milwaukee, who are visiting in the Bennett home, 1224 South Cheyenne avenue.

Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. A. J. Hull was hostess on Saturday entertaining informally in honor of Mrs. William Bretherage of Dallas, who with her daughter, Miss Grace Bretherage, left yesterday for her home after a 10 days' stay in the C. C. and J. B. Cole homes.

For Mrs. Beissau.

Mrs. W. H. Poole of 915 North Denver will entertain informally in her home next Saturday afternoon for her house guest, Mrs. Charles Paul Beissau of Chaffee, Mo.

For Mrs. Compton.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will be an honored guest today at a card party given by Mrs. G. W. Warnecke, 608 East Buena Vista.

Informal Card Party.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will entertain informally at bridges on Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. E. Compton of Palm Beach, Fla., who is visiting Mrs. Charles L. Yancey.

Tuesday's Events.

Mrs. W. G. Warnecke will entertain at cards on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. W. E. Compton.

Mr. H. F. Abby and young son H. F. Jr. will leave this week for Mill Lake, Mich., where the latter will attend Camp Kee-Mi-Rah-Bee, a summer camp for boys. This is composed of 15 boys and runs from July 1 to Aug. 10. It is owned by a Mr. Yeager of Chicago and proves each year a wonderful summer outlet for young America, so it is said. Mrs. Abby expects to leave July 10 for the Michigan lakes and will be joined on the 20th by Mr. Abby.

Lieutenant C. Robertson, who was overseas with the 16th Division and returned with the casualty company, landing at Charleston, S. C., arrived Sunday and he and Mrs. Robertson will spend their time until they go to housekeeping with Lieutenant Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robertson, 1130 North Cheyenne, and Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bates, in Irving place.

Mrs. Hallie Golay, secretary of the home service section, had Mrs. L. McMinn, secretary of the local Red Cross, have returned from Dallas, where they attended a meeting of the southwestern division of the Red Cross. While away Mrs. McMinn visited her husband in San Antonio and while there had the pleasure of welcoming home a brother, who has just returned from overseas with the 29th division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walter and little daughter, Mary Frances, and Mrs. Walter's mother, Mrs. B. M. McFarlin, will leave Sunday for points in Colorado for the summer. Their friends will be glad to know that Mary Frances is much improved, having been seriously ill.

Mrs. Frank H. Reed, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Margaret Reed and Mr. Edward Reed, left Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif., where they will spend the summer with Miss Herde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steep, of Meriden, Conn., who are summering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. McVay have returned from their wedding trip and are with Mrs. McVay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tarr, on South Broadway until their home in Boulder and Estes Park is completed.

I thought a bit, and took him by the hand, and said I, "you do not understand."

The inner meaning of that simple phrase.

A friend is what the heart needs all the time.

Henry van Dyke.

For Visitors.

Mrs. Marjorie Welsh will entertain at luncheon next Saturday in the Tea Cup Inn and with a dance that night at the Wilson Inn in Maple Ridge, to introduce her great Miss Louise Blaier of Dallas. Miss Frances Treadaway of Hominy, who will visit the Woods, and Miss May Morrissey of Kansas City, who will visit Mrs. Pa. Wade. On Wednesday these visitors will be guests of honor at a party to be given at Sand Springs. Another event in their honor will be the dancing party on Thursday evening when Miss Lucy May Morrissey will be host. Other affairs are being planned for them.

Informal Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett entertained with an informal dinner on Saturday, honoring their wedding anniversary and complimenting Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Matson of Milwaukee, who are visiting in the Bennett home, 1224 South Cheyenne avenue.

Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. A. J. Hull was hostess on Saturday entertaining informally in honor of Mrs. William Bretherage of Dallas, who with her daughter, Miss Grace Bretherage, left yesterday for her home after a 10 days' stay in the C. C. and J. B. Cole homes.

For Mrs. Beissau.

Mrs. W. H. Poole of 915 North Denver will entertain informally in her home next Saturday afternoon for her house guest, Mrs. Charles Paul Beissau of Chaffee, Mo.

For Mrs. Compton.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will be an honored guest today at a card party given by Mrs. G. W. Warnecke, 608 East Buena Vista.

Informal Card Party.

Mrs. W. E. Compton will entertain informally at bridges on Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. E. Compton of Palm Beach, Fla., who is visiting Mrs. Charles L. Yancey.

Tuesday's Events.

Mrs. W. G. Warnecke will entertain at cards on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. W. E. Compton.

Mr. H. F. Abby and young son H. F. Jr. will leave this week for Mill Lake, Mich., where the latter will attend Camp Kee-Mi-Rah-Bee, a summer camp for boys. This is composed of 15 boys and runs from July 1 to Aug. 10. It is owned by a Mr. Yeager of Chicago and proves each year a wonderful summer outlet for young America, so it is said. Mrs. Abby expects to leave July 10 for the Michigan lakes and will be joined on the 20th by Mr. Abby.

Lieutenant C. Robertson, who was overseas with the 16th Division and returned with the casualty company, landing at Charleston, S. C., arrived Sunday and he and Mrs. Robertson will spend their time until they go to housekeeping with Lieutenant Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Robertson, 1130 North Cheyenne, and Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bates, in Irving place.

Mrs. Hallie Golay, secretary of the home service section, had Mrs. L. McMinn, secretary of the local Red Cross, have returned from Dallas, where they attended a meeting of the southwestern division of the Red Cross. While away Mrs. McMinn visited her husband in San Antonio and while there had the pleasure of welcoming home a brother, who has just returned from overseas with the 29th division.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Walter and little daughter, Mary Frances, and Mrs. Walter's mother, Mrs. B. M. McFarlin, will leave Sunday for points in Colorado for the summer. Their friends will be glad to know that Mary Frances is much improved, having been seriously ill.

Mrs. Frank H. Reed, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Margaret Reed and Mr. Edward Reed, left Saturday for Santa Monica, Calif., where they will spend the summer with Miss Herde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steep, of Meriden, Conn., who are summering there.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. McVay have returned from their wedding trip and are with Mrs. McVay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Tarr, on South Broadway until their home in Boulder and Estes Park is completed.

I thought a bit, and took him by the hand, and said I, "you do not understand."

The inner meaning of that simple phrase.

A friend is what the heart needs all the time.

Henry van Dyke.

For Visitors.